TRANSITIONS

by Diana Sears

Sometimes I complain about change, change that forces me to adapt or learn a new way of doing things. (Think computers.) It's a form of putting my head in the sand! All my life I have been making changes. So, I chide myself not to complain.

Call changes transitions and I recognize they began very early in life. The first day of school in September was a huge transition. And after that, June was always a month of change. The school year ends. Vacations begin. Graduations lead to further education or jobs that transport us to new locations. Tradition makes it the month for weddings and another series of transitions.

As I turn the calendar page to June 2019, I find no special celebrations to mark there for my family this year. Nevertheless, in my occupation as a KCC Volunteer, I celebrate the passage of another year at the Community Center. Our doors have been open for 22 years now!

The recent transition at KCC from a single event facility to one which holds simultaneous events has taken adaptation and adjustment from all of us. As I write these lines, I purposely choose words that end with "-tion". Forgive me if I sound like your high school English teacher, but that suffix indicates activity and motion forward as well as change.

What has not changed is KCC's mission to serve the needs and interests of South Tillamook County residents. We appreciate you and want you to join in helping us to make transitions within our building graceful and comfortable. Please join us whenever you can. ~ Diana

Thanks to all of you out there that through your donations, we were able to purchase a new Bingo Machine!! We are so very grateful to those of you that made this possible.

Now, we are looking for donations for our new Bingo Cards. If you have questions, please leave a message for Cameron at the Center at 503-965-7900.

Thank you

Answer

Martin Lawrence

It wasn't just a favorite of every obnoxious kid with an attitude. The popular phrase "talk to the hand" actually came from Martin Lawrence's '92 sitcom "Martin."
