DID YOU KNOW... by Diana Sears

Kiawanda Community Center is open to the public 52 weeks a year, 6 days a week excepting holidays, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday thru Friday, 1 to 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays and some evenings. That's more than 300 days per year!

Because of caring volunteers, visitors are welcomed by a person at the front desk. Questions are answered with available handouts, postings on our Bulletin Boards, or because of local knowledge.

The Fireside Lounge is a quiet spot to hold a conversation, read, go on-line with your own portable device, work a puzzle, play a game or browse for local information.

The Senior Meal Site serves meals at noon to both Senior Citizens and the public-at-large 5 days a week excepting holidays. Cheerful volunteers dish up from the kitchen, wait tables and wash dishes.

Northwest Senior and Disability Services contracts with Bateman Company to prepare these meals and provides for delivery to other meal sites throughout Tillamook and Clatsop County. NWSDS also employs a coordinator at KCC who supervises both the meal service and local Meals on Wheels deliveries. Last year 63,700 meals (1200 per week) were prepared in KCC's kitchen and dispersed to the public.

Because KCC has no tax money to support upkeep, operations or pay for management and custodial employees, the Board of Directors bears the responsibility of applying for Grants, holding Fund Raising Events and turning to the Public for donations. They also are Volunteers, as I am, and have been for many years.

NOW YOU KNOW!

Please donate if you can. Come to our Volunteer Meeting to see how you can help, Monday, August 26 at 1 p.m. and meet Jody, our Volunteer Coordinator! Thank you! ~ Diana

WEAVING

AN OLD-AGE CRAFT

By Cece Traylor and Cathy Jones

Weaving is an age-old craft passed down through the ages and across the world. It was a useful craft.

When you were getting ready to sail your ships over to discover the New World, don't forget the sails. Where do you go to pick these up. Did Amazon carry your size?

Weavers all across Europe were involved. The size of your sails determined which country would end up weaving them. Different countries had different size looms and were able to produce different size fabric. Certain countries specialized in different items. After all, JoAnn's didn't exist. If you wanted a new dress someone would have to spin the yarn and then weave the cloth. Most likely it would be you.

Ireland is famous for its cottage weaving as is Scotland while England was more likely to have large woolen mills. Spain, Italy and Portugal were large suppliers of sails and other larger items. While not everything was made of wool, cotton and linen were heavily used.

As time went by, larger and larger mills replaced the smaller ones. While weaving has moved to places like China and India, it is still alive and well here in Pacific City.

~ Cece and Cathy

OUR LOCAL WEAVERS!

Three of our local weavers display their products in our Community Center Gift Shop. Cece Traylor, Lena Bensen and Cathy Jones make both practical and decorative items: Scarves, towels, placemats, wall hangings, table runners, purses and mittens. Stop by and check them out. Remember to Buy Local this summer. ~ Julie Krohn

BUSINESS ADS

When I took over the Kiawanda Kapers with the December '15 edition, there were about 14 ads at that time. To date we have 36 businesses who have come on board, or stayed on board, to help support us with the last 6 signing up within the past few months.

As the editor of this newsletter, I just want to thank those businesses in our community as well as those in the outlying communities of Pacific City that have stepped up and placed their ads in support of our newsletter, the Kiawanda Kapers.

thank you

Answer

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE?

Hitting the airwaves in 1999, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire became an instant hit. With the promise of winning $1,000,000 (if you made it through all of the questions with the correct answers, of course) it had the perfect recipe for success.

Fun fact: The first ever millionaire on Who Wants to Be a Millionaire made it to the million dollar question without using any of his life lines and used the "phone a friend" to call his dad saying he won.
